How does this year deliver your curriculum intent?

You will apply your knowledge of different styles of performance and will select a piece of repertoire that allows you to develop your performance skills in your chosen style. Working with others, you will continue to develop your communication and listening skills, creativity and resilience. Regular opportunities for critical and self reflection will raise aspiration and self-esteem which will be carried through many other aspects of your life. You will refine your examination skills and practice the values & skills required for a future career in the Arts. You will also complete the outstanding component 3 exam by devising in response to a given brief.
