How does this year deliver your curriculum intent?	Studies in Year 7 will give students an overview of how their country has changed and developed over time. Specifically they will gain an understanding of the complexities of life in Britain from the medieval period to the end of the 17th century whilst familiarising themselves with the key historical concepts such as continuity and change, cause and consequence, similarity, difference and significance. They will gain knowledge of key events and how they have shaped our country today including the introduction and collapse of the Feudal System and the growth of parliament.
